

<https://www.engineeringnews.co.za/article/fruitful-plans-2026-04-24>

FRUITFUL PLANS

24TH APRIL 2026

Transnet Port Terminals (TPT) reports that it has Transnet Port Terminals (TPT) reports that it has undertaken integrated planning with the citrus industry ahead of the 2026 export season. From April to September, container terminals with refrigerated containers, such as those pictured, will handle oranges, mandarins, lemons, clementines, limes and grapefruit destined for over 100 markets. TPT reports that its terminals in KwaZulu-Natal, Eastern Cape, and Western Cape will offer a 24-hour service across four employee shifts.

Photo by: Supplied

undertaken integrated planning with the citrus industry ahead of the 2026 export season. From April to September, container terminals with refrigerated containers, such as those pictured, will handle oranges, mandarins, lemons, clementines, limes and grapefruit destined for over 100 markets. TPT reports that its terminals in KwaZulu-Natal, Eastern Cape, and Western Cape will offer a 24-hour service across four employee shifts.

Phone: +27 (0)11 622 3744

Email: newsdesk@engineeringnews.co.za

Website: www.engineeringnews.co.za

To subscribe email
subscriptions@creamermmedia.co.za or click here

To advertise email
advertising@creamermmedia.co.za or click here

