

SAfm Market Update Full Show

New Opec deal, market concentration, and citrus producers' resilience

This evening, we wrap up the day's market movements with Otto1890, we unpack the new Opec infrastructure deal with Econometrix, we examine the market concentration study and what it means for small businesses with the Competition Commission, we find out if there is still a business case for the City of Johannesburg with Outa, we explore the resilience of citrus producers in the face of recent storms with the Citrus Growers' Association of Southern Africa, and in our Executive Lounge, we follow the journey of Ray Langa from Leagas Delaney South Africa.
