Nothing like a lemon to sweeten SA's export outlook

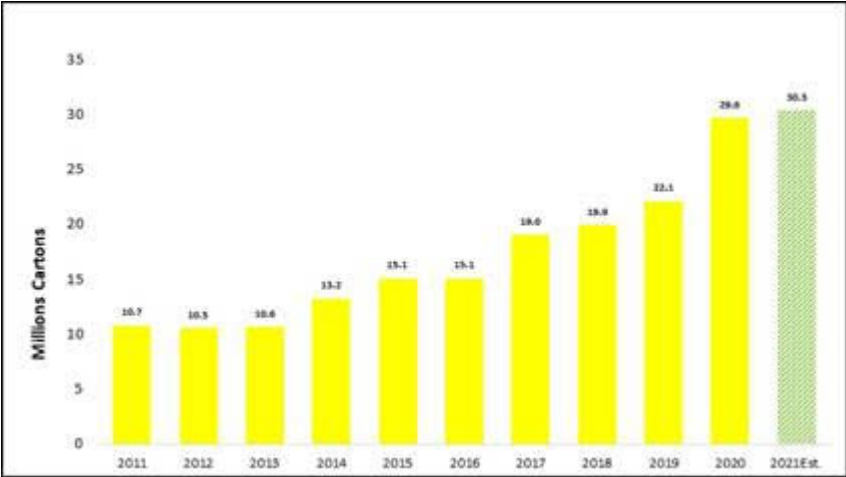

19 Apr 2021

There's no holding back on the success of South Africa's citrus export industry. And every product is contributing.

The latest statistics released by the Citrus Growers' Association (CGA) show that lemons too are continuing their upward trajectory.

After a significant increase in lemons exported between 2019 and 2020, the estimated export volume for 2021 from the Lemon Focus Group is at a similar level to that achieved in 2020.
