

MSC enhances Eastern Cape Express Service for fresh fruit exports

MSC announced the launch of its improved Eastern Cape Express Service, designed to offer faster and more efficient transit times of fresh fruit from the Eastern Cape to Europe and the Mediterranean.

Effective immediately, the service rotation will be as follows:

Walvis Bay – Gqeberha – Sines – London Gateway – Rotterdam – Antwerp – Le Havre – Sines – Casablanca – Las Palmas.

MSC stated that this enhancement is particularly beneficial for the region's fresh fruit exporters, ensuring that produce reaches destination markets with improved transit times and greater reliability to meet growing demand.

The company expressed its appreciation for continued support and said it looks forward to serving customers' logistics needs with this optimised solution.
