

Moneyweb@Midday

Port and rail reform: Less talk more action please

The Citrus Growers' Association asks for tangible remedies to port and rail infrastructure problems to boost exports. While CEOs and economists remain optimistic about SA's growth, budget 2025 must lift business sentiment. And the life and legacy of late Namibian president Sam Nujoma.

By Jeremy Maggs 14 Feb 2025 ⌚ 13:30

You can also listen to this podcast on iono.fm here.

Guests on today's show:

Justin Chadwick: CEO, Citrus Growers' Association

Lullu Krugel: Chief economist, PwC

Gwen Lister: Veteran journalist and founder of The Namibian

Savannah Plaskitt: Head of marketing, Netflorist

Follow Moneyweb's in-depth finance and business news on WhatsApp here.

This is your 3rd free article for this week. Sign in to read all Moneyweb articles from the past two weeks for free. Create account.

