

South Africa

South Africa, US to resume trade talks as tariff deadline looms

The negotiating teams will aim to thrash out the details of South Africa's proposed framework agreement.

By S'thembile Cele, Bloomberg · 18 Jun 2025 ⌚ 14:27

Image: GCIS

South Africa will resume trade talks with the Trump administration on the sidelines of the US-Africa Business Summit next week, with less than a month to go before Washington's reciprocal tariffs are set to come into effect

Subscribe to read this article...

Get full access to our award-winning articles, email alerts and market data tools. You can cancel any time.

R70/month or ~~R840~~ R700/year

SUBSCRIBE NOW

SIGN IN

 Download our app. Moneyweb

TAGS: CYRIL RAMAPHOSA | TRUMP ADMINISTRATION | US-AFRICA BUSINESS SUMMIT |
XOLELWA MLUMBI-PETER

