

BDTV

WATCH: How SA's citrus exports set records despite US tariffs

Business Day TV speaks to Thabile Nkunjana of the National Agricultural Marketing Council

November 12, 2025 at 04:22 pm

Overseas demand for oranges and lemons has given SA a juicy export record. More than 203-million 15kg cartons of the citrus fruit were shipped this season, but that was before the US's tariffs took effect. Business Day TV discusses the development with Thabile Nkunjana, an agricultural economist at the National Agricultural Marketing Council.

WATCH: SA citrus exports break records amid US tariffs

Also read: Citrus industry smashes targets with bumper export season

EDITOR'S CHOICE

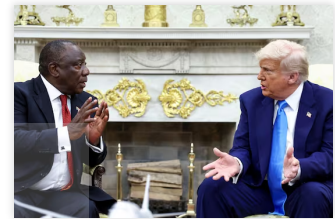

- 1 INTERVIEW: RAF collapsed due to weak leadership and failed oversight, ActionSA's Beesley says

- 2 SA oranges regain edge in US market after tariff cut

- 3 EDITORIAL: Inclusive G20 will rescue its credibility

- 4 Economists welcome S&P upgrade, but caution against complacency

- 5 SA's market surge adds R5-trillion in value

RELATED ARTICLES

BusinessDay

SECTIONS

News
Politics
Opinion
Companies
Economy
Markets
World
Business Times
Lifestyle
Sport
Motoring
BDTV
E-Edition

READ MORE

About Business Day
Contact us
Advertise
Terms of service
Privacy policy
Cookie policy
Comments policy
Newsletters
Subscriptions
FAQs
RSS feeds

OUR NETWORK

Financial Mail
Wanted Online
Sunday Times
TimesLIVE
Sowetan
The Herald
Daily Dispatch
SA Home Owner
Arena Events

2025 © Arena Holdings