Spotlight on Speaker

Mikhail Fateev (CGA Russia Representative)

Mikhail Ivanovich Fateev was born in 1945 in Stalingrad, Russia. He graduated from St. Petersburg State University, Russia, in 1968.

He worked in the state system of foreign economic relations of the Soviet Union connected with rendering technical assistance to developing countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America in establishment of industrial projects. In line of his duty he was posted in the USSR Embassies abroad in Egypt, Ethiopia and India.

After the collapse of the USSR in 1991, he was posted at the Department for Food Resources of Moscow's government with responsibilities of ensuring provision of Moscow's population (about 30 million in terms of consumers) with fruits and vegetables. While working in Moscow's government, he established contacts with the South African fruit industry and initiated procurement of fresh produce from South Africa from 1994. In 1996 he joined Capespan International as Representative for Russian Market. He retired from Capespan in 2010. In 2011 he became associated with the Citrus Growers' Association of Southern Africa as a consultant.
