HR Newsletter No. 30 | 2 April 2024

The Citrus Resource Warehouse is an online storage space for a variety of documents relevant and pertaining to the Southern African citrus industry. The first edition of our weekly update is attached below. These weekly updates may include industry newsletters, news articles, extension document updates, learning resources, legislation and more!

Documents stored on the CRW website are either sourced directly from the public domain or are stored with the permission of the original sources. The copyright of documents belongs to the original source. Please note that this is a free resource and that no documents downloaded from this site can be used for personal profit. View our Terms of Use, Privacy Policy, and Member Access Policy for more information.

Documents which are already in the public domain can be viewed and downloaded freely, but some documents are stored in a secure members section. In order to access these documents, you will need login details. User account membership is restricted to CGA affiliated citrus growers, citrus packhouses and group employees. Documents available to members only will require a PUC or PHC number to register to view.
