HR Newsletter No. 80 | 18 February 2026

The HR Citrus Community is live!

Welcome to the Citrus Academy latest development in the HR and skills development space. The Human Resource Community is an online platform where the Citrus Academy will communicate, share and contribute to the Citrus HR and skills development space.

We have as a courtesy relocated your information from our Citrus Academy website HR Forum to the new Communities website.

Visit the new Citrus Communities website

You should have received website communication of the above. If you have not seen it, please look at your junk mail or spam folders.

If you still need assistance, please email our Information manager, Angela Phillips.

Citrus HR Community: Register Now!

If you have new additions to your HR and Training teams and would like them to be in the know about Citrus Academy skills development initiatives, please let them know to register!
