

Staff houses before renovation:

Houses after renovation:

-ACHIEVEMENTS / TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT -

AgriSETA : Excellence Award

Bahle Kweba, who received a Citrus Academy Bursary during 2013, was acknowledged in 2014 as the winner of the AgriSETA Excellence Award in the category: Best Performer: Internship. He has a National Diploma in Agriculture, B.Tech, Agricultural Management which he studied at the University of Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University.

He started his internship year with SRCC in 2013 in the Hermitage Packhouse. Through industry exposure, Bahle decided that he would like to be part of SRCC and in 2014 he was appointed in the Agronomy Department of SRCC as a field technician, doing mainly orchard analysis. During 2015 he was appointed at the Primary Production Department as an Assistant Production Manager.

He is planning to further his studies and is still eligible for the Citrus Academy Bursary.

